Development and operations project for the Waterpark conversion and tiering tooling. The Levante storage holds remapping weight files, working space for intermediate output from HEALPix conversions, and test data prior to publication.